

UMSL Men's Golf Postseason Awards

Ron Brewer

Ron Brewer UMSL Men's Golf MVP

This award is given annually to the player who has contributed to the success of the team through his play on the course, leadership on the team and contribution to overall success of the program. The award is named in honor of UMSL Hall of Fame member Ron Brewer, who played four seasons from 1967-68 and from 1969-72. During his career, he was a four-time team MVP, played in three national championships and also struck the first shot in competition for UMSL Golf.

Ron Brewer MVP Recipients:

2009 – Tim Cochran

2010 – Matt Rau

2011 – Ryan Penfield

David Rhoads

David Rhoads UMSL Men's Golf Scholar-Athlete

This award is given annually to a student-athlete who has performed at a high level in both the classroom and the golf course. The award is named in honor of UMSL Hall of Fame member David Rhoads, who was a two-time All-American and two-time Academic All-American. He also set many UMSL scoring records during his four-year career that still stand today.

David Rhoads Scholar-Athlete Recipients:

2009 – Tim Cochran

2010 – Tim Cochran

2011 – Joe Atkisson